Soccer (Football) plays an important cultural role throughout the Arab world, draws millions of fans each year, builds unity among people in the Middle East & North Africa (MENA), and consistently ranks as the region’s most-watched sport. In 2022, Qatar will be the first country in the MENA region to host the FIFA World Cup™.